Born in the Philippine countryside and raised on the East Coast playing classical music, singer-songwriter Alfa approaches her pop songs from a distinct source, blending dynamic melodies with an array of instruments - guitar, ukulele, violin, piano, and the occasional kazoo. Music Connection has called her “an artist who has a spectrum of colors in her palette, a songwriter with a knack for tickling a mainstream ear.” Alfa, who signed with Pacific Records in 2015, performs throughout U.S. colleges and in her native Philippines, and has opened for Sam Smith, Us the Duo, the Rembrandts, and Howie Day.

Alfa will release her 10-song album Spark & Fury on June 23, marking her producing debut and capping off a two-year collaborative effort with musicians across the country, many of whom Alfa befriended during her travels since quitting her journalism job in 2011. Spark & Fury is a testament to Alfa’s approach to melodic lyricism and multi-instrumental versatility. “The record is about accepting myself as I am: all my flaws, adjusting to each ‘phase’ in life, my vulnerability in love and my career; and betting that others can relate,” she says.

Alfa’s 2013 album World Go Blue entered the College Music Journal (CMJ) Top 200 charts, with songs heard on E!, MTV, and films like Old Fashioned (Skoche Films) and Baby Steps (produced by the producer of Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon.) In 2016, Alfa headlined the Grand Plaza Stage at NAMM and landed a spot on Spotify Philippines’ Top 50 Viral Songs with her single “Bare Feet.” Her song “Blue” has over 160K streams on Spotify.
